

Building Community

Learn how to build vibrant communities at this weekend workshop near Cambridge

Cambridge Sustainability Centre,
Fen End Farm, Cottenham
Saturday 29 to Sunday 30 April

What does it mean to “build community”? What skills do we need and how can we develop them? During this workshop, we’ll use a variety of experiential exercises to explore our own experiences of being in community and to think about what communities we’d like to build in future.

Cost: This workshop is being run on a voluntary basis, with a suggested donation of £40-£50 to cover costs.

Staying over: Camping options available for Saturday night.

For more info and to book:
<http://www.ourearth.org.uk>